Notifications about upcoming deadline

In order to remind economic operators in due time about the upcoming deadline of a procedure in which they are participating, the system will send out an e-mail 5 days before the time limit of receipt of submissions. More precisely,

- in open procedures, the 1st step of restricted procedures and the 1st round of exceptional negotiated procedures, all economic operators who have created a draft submission will receive an e-mail;
- in the 2nd step of restricted procedures and subsequent rounds of an exceptional negotiated procedures, all economic operators who have been invited will receive an e-mail.

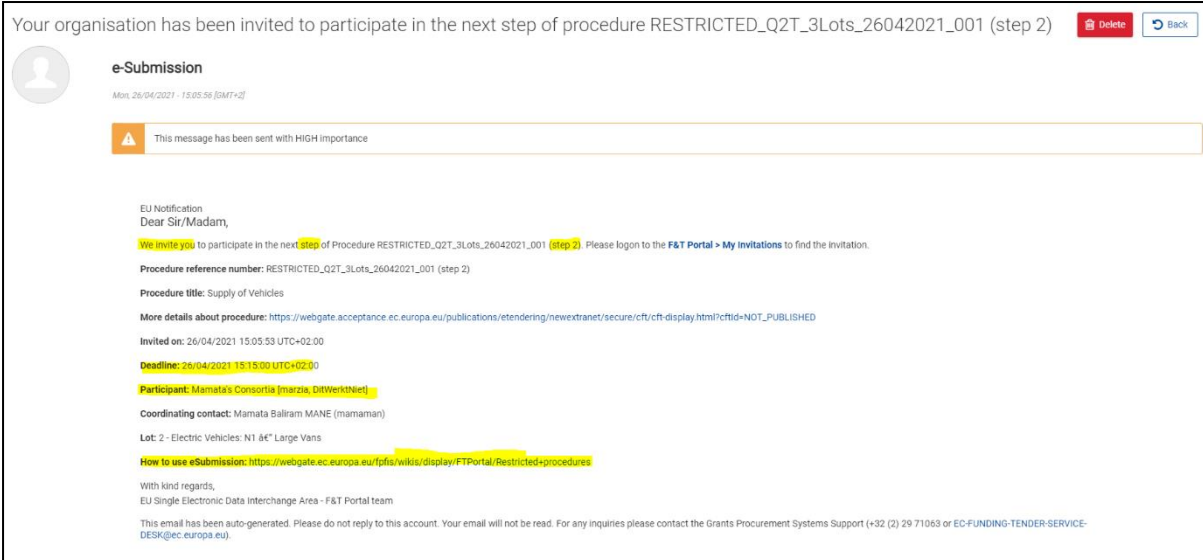

All persons who have a role as candidate/tenderer in the Funding & Tenders portal (primary coordinator contact or coordinator contact, see here for a definition) will receive the notification. In the Funding & Tenders portal, the e-mail will also be visible under the section "My Notifications".

Invitation to the next step or round of the procedure

For restricted and exceptional negotiated procedures, the e-mail inviting economic operators to the next step or round of the procedure is enriched with more specific information. The invitation will clearly state for which step or round the invitation is valid. In addition, it will explicitly mention the participant's name, as well as the time limit for receipt of submissions for that step or round. Furthermore, the invitation will contain a link to the Funding & Tenders portal eProcurement Wiki pages for restricted and exceptional negotiated procedures.

Example of an invitation to step 2 of the restricted procedure:

Notifications sent to the LEAR

After closing the opening session, the LEAR (legal entity appointed representative) of each participating organisation will receive an e-mail notifying them that the PIC (Participant Identification Code) of their organization was used in a submission for a call for tenders. The LEAR will only receive this communication if the status of tender was indicated as "In Order" during the opening session. In case of a consortium, the LEARs of the group leader and group members will receive this notification.
