

04. Content governance

This section provides information on the editorial workflow that has been set up in the Content Management System of the European Commission and EU websites to help create, review, edit and publish content. It also details the governance process in place to ensure that content changes and additions to the European Commission website ('info site') are carried out in a structured and transparent way.

- 01. Editorial workflow
- 02. European Commission website \(former 'info site'\)