

01. Request procedures

Whether you're creating/revamping a website or developing a mobile application for the European Commission, you must get your web project approved by DG Communication first. Find out how to request approval for a website project in Revamps and new websites and for a mobile app in Mobile applications.

The section also provides information on how to access corporate communication framework contracts if you need to purchase supplies or services and how to register officially domain and website names.

- 01. Revamps and new websites (EU login required)
- 02. Mobile applications (EU login required)
- 03. Domains and sites names (EU login required)
- 04. Framework contracts (EU login required)