Set a filter as default

By default the results list is not filtered, it contains all items based on all Programmes, Calls and Rounds. You can change this by defining a default active filter.

To set a filter as default, click on the Actions button, then select Set as default. Your content will be filtered based on the default filter every time you come back to the page.