How to use this help

How to easily navigate through this help?

- At the top of the page, the breadcrumb indicates the page currently consulted and offers the possibility to get back to the homepage of this help.
- The homepage of this help contains a search tool.

How are the pages of this help structured?

- This section, Navigating to the data describes how to explore the available data under ALL DATA, and how to keep a list of datasets in My data. A glossary defines terms used most frequently
- Viewing data describes the different ways to consult and visualise data.
- Downloading data describes how to manually download data, in all possible formats.

Which are the minimum technical requirements to use the Data Browser?

Supported web browsers

The following web browsers are supported:

Browser	Version
Google Chrome	Last stable version
Mozilla Firefox	Last stable version
Microsoft Edge	Last stable version
Safari	Last stable version
Chrome Mobile	Last stable version
Safari Mobile	Last stable version

ⓘ When a new stable version of a browser is released, it may take some time to carry out the required changes in the Data Browser.